(Ltr. to FDD)

Since the transfer on December 1, 1946, of the Washington Document Center to the Central Intelligence Group and its subsequent redesignation as Documents Branch under the Office of Operations, the high quality of your work has been brought to my attention.

With the advent of the New Year, I am taking the opportunity to welcome each one of you into the Central Intelligence Group and to assure you of my personal interest in the important duties assigned to you. I am confident that your continued efforts will reflect greatly to the credit of the Central Intelligence Group as well as to you individually.
